

DSM Equipment Suggestions

Equipment for screening

- Blood pressure monitor
- Height and weight scale
- Flexible tape measure for neck circumference

Equipment for examination and start of treatment

- Radiographic equipment to take full mouth or panoramic images
- MM ruler or similar
- Protrusive gauge for ROM measurements and construction bite capture
 - Bite registration material
- Demonstration models-various OA and morning occlusal guide (MOG) samples
- Analog impressions and record-keeping
 - Impression trays, impression material
 - Lab stone and related products for analog study models
 - Camera for high resolution images, pre-OAT and follow up
 - Lip retractors
- Digital impressions and record keeping
 - Digital scanner
- Material for MOG with hot water source or bath

Equipment for Delivery and Follow-Up Visits

- Face mirror to assist patient in visualizing device insertion
- Lab burs and pliers for adjustments to devices-device specific
- Hot water source or bath for thermal sensitive materials
- Articulating paper or shimstock to evaluate occlusal contact on device
- Device for obtaining objective data, such as HSAT or pulse oximeter (if permitted by state dental board)
- Extra parts from laboratories or manufacturers for the various appliances provided to patients